VCN (Virtual Card Number) Issuer Options

Gant Travel Preferred Options

Gant Coin - GANTCOIN

Gant Travel will provide merchant services for your VCN/third party authorization form process. We will pay for your hotel transaction after your stay is complete with our VCN credit account. The next business day we will charge your current corporate credit card for the amount of the stay plus the payment convenience fee. This process will allow your organization to utilize the Gant Strategic pay process without having to apply for a new credit card or requiring you to make any change to your existing credit card relationship.

- Utilize your current Corporate Credit Card. No change to your current credit card relationship
- No application for a new form of payment
- No change to how you collect credit card points for your provider
- Very quick and easy setup process
  - Please note: additional charges will apply

  - Please note: this option is only available for companies with corporate headquarters in Indiana, New Jersey, Delaware, Wyoming, Virginia, Wisconsin, Mississippi, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, and Montana

Current Banking Institutions with VCN Card Options

Gant Strategic Pay is compatible with many banking institutions, you may choose to establish a VCN relationship via a traditional credit card account.

- When utilizing this form of payment option, it generally results in a modification to your current credit card program in order to have the ability to issue VCN cards. Or you may have to establish a new relationship if your current institution is not listed below.
- The modification to your program may also require a restructuring of your credit card terms, which typically results in a change to your current credit card reward program. In some cases, the reward programs are forfeited all together.
- Establishing a VCN program or converting your current credit card type will be implemented with one of the institutions listed below. Gant Travel does not play a role in establishing this relationship.

Please note: The time frame to convert or establish a VCN account will vary, however it could take 4-6 months
